A committee led by Professor Helge Jordheim has proposed a new language policy for the University of Oslo. You can read more about the work leading up to the proposal on this page.

The deadline for providing input is 11 October. All responses will be published on www.uio.no.

My role

Academic staff at UiO

Provide your input to the new language policy for UiO

My comment is on the following:

"New permanent academic staff without a Scandinavian language background are expected to learn Norwegian."

Will UiO be providing Norwegian language courses to international academic staff? There are different policies throughout the University on who is funded to take Norwegian language classes, however, many PhD students do not receive this funding and therefore do not take the classes. This extremely hinders their job opportunities and requires them to seek employment in other countries causing this investment on the PhD training to be used outside of Norway.
